Candidate Profile

General requirements for our Directors

As a Global Director, you will take on the responsibility of leading a JE Global department and seeing your projects and initiatives through, while managing a dynamic team of Junior Entrepreneurs and accounting for their growth and efforts within our KPI-based performance management system.

General Traits of a JEG Director

1

Proactivity and Curiosity

Within this international experience, you will be exposed to a multicultural environment and interact with diverse working methods and mindsets, so you should be committed to learning and growing as much as possible from this opportunity.

Management Skills

You will have to manage the new responsibilities delegated onto you and how you aim to ensure their execution. As such, we are looking for those who have great organisational skills and responsibility, in order to create an environment of achievement.

Collaborative Spirit

You will become part of a large team, not only within your own Department, but among the remaining structure of JE Global as well. Therefore, it is crucial that you present a strong sense of collaboration and achievement to make the JE Global team reach its full potential.

General Requirements of a JEG Director

Education & Aspirations

You must be a current student enrolled in an educational programme or recent graduate with aspiration to continued education. We especially welcome gap year applicants. It is also important to have availability for minimum 15 hours/week of commitment.

English Proficiency

You will have to be well versed in the English language, level C1 or above, since it is the official language of the Global Confederation. Additional languages are advantageous, especially UN languages and Portuguese.

Collaboration Tools

You will become part of a global team, where you will work in a remote and international environment. Therefore, it is crucial that you are familiar with tools such as Slack, Google Workspace and Notion and be capable of proficiently handling such tools to your advantage.
